OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY BY ACT OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Telegraph Sixtieth First Year

DIXON, ILLINOIS TUESDAY JULY 2nd 1912.

[Dixon Daily Telegraph Twenty-Ninth Year No.155]

GOV. WOODROW WILSON IS NOMINATED BY THE DEMOCRATS

WOODROW WILSON WAS NOMINATED BY DEMO. CONVENTION

THE PRESSURE OF INCREASING VOTES CAUSES COLLAPSE OF LONG DRAWN OUT DEADLOCK.

FORTY-THIRD BALLOT WAS TURNING POINT IN BATTLE

STATE DELEGATIONS IN A MAD RUSH FOR NEW JERSEY GOVERNOR'S HAND WAGON ON THE 46TH BALLOT.

UNDERWOOD'S WITHDRAWAL CAUSES STAMPEDE

Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Massachusetts, Colorado, Michigan, West Virginia and Other States Switch to Former Princeton Professor—Underwood and Foss Withdraw and Clark Delegates Are Released as Wilson Was Seen to Be Victor—Bryan Receives Great Demonstration and Gets Credit for Nomination.

Convention Hall, Baltimore, Md., July 2.—Special to Telegraph—Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, democracy's progressive candidate, was nominated for the presidency at 2:45 this afternoon after one of the longest drawn out and most bitter of democratic fights.

The nomination of the New Jersey professor came after a day marked by the desertion of the Clark delegates, slowly at first and then, taking on speed and force like an avalanche, the Wilson movement finally swept things to such an extent that the Clark delegates were released, and the other candidates' names withdrawn.

When, after the 46th ballot this afternoon, it was announced that Wilson had won, the convention broke into a wild turmoil, and, very strangely, there were more cries for Bryan than for the victorious nominee. For Bryan had led the fight which brought the New Jersey man from the rear, slowly at first, until he won out, the choice of the democracy.

The convention convened at 12:10 and it was evident that the Wilson feeling was growing. When Colorado was reached while taking the 43rd ballot that state switched to Wilson, which started a stampede that boosted his total vote from 494 on the 42nd ballot, taken last night, to 602 on the first ballot today. But the stampede brought only a mild demonstration, the tired delegates having passed the demonstration stage. The result of the 43rd ballot was:

Wilson	602
Clark	329
Underwood	98 1/2
Foss	27
Harmon	28
Kern	1
Bryan	1

Indiana Drops Kern. The 44th ballot, which was ordered immediately, brought more Wilson gains. Indiana dropped Kern and gave Wilson its 18 votes. Wisconsin followed by giving its first solid vote for Wilson, 27 votes. The result of the 44th ballot:

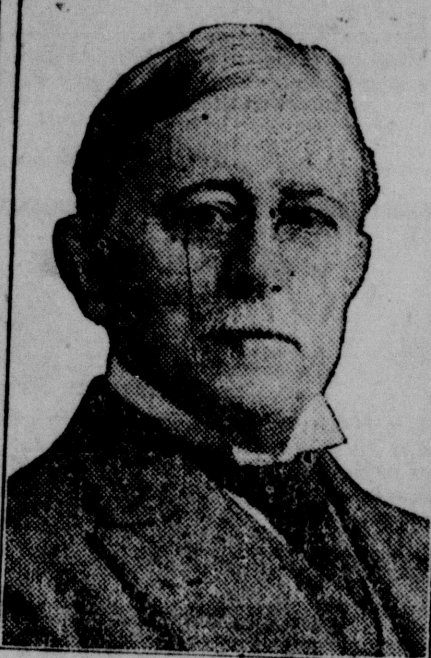

Wilson	629
Clark	306
Underwood	99
Foss	27
Harmon	27

Illinois to Wilson. Illinois, banking on their statement that they would be with the victor, polled the delegation on the 43rd ballot and Wilson secured 40 to Clark's 18. The unit rule resulted in the entire 58 going to Wilson and causing a demonstration, as Illinois was considered the balance of power. Following Illinois, Michigan gave Wilson all but 2 of its 50 votes, the largest Wilson vote cast from that state. The Virginia delegation adopted the unit rule and cast its 24 for the Progressive, and West Virginia followed by switching its 16 from Clark to Wilson.

Wilson Gains Continue. From then on the outcome was evident. On the 45th Wilson polled his highest vote from Ohio, getting 23 to Harmon's 25 and on the 45th ballot the totals stood:

Wilson	633
Clark	306
Underwood	97
Harmon	25

Dr. Hamilton Wright Mabie, one of the editors of the Outlook, will leave for Japan this fall for a six months' lecture tour.

Foss ..... 27
the unanimous nomination of Wilson.

Not Unanimous. The chair ruled that Fitzgerald's motion could only be put by the unanimous consent of the convention, which was not forthcoming, Missouri objecting in order to register a final vote for Clark.

Massachusetts cast its solid vote for Wilson, and then came the announcement of Wilson's victory.

Underwood Releases. That was the beginning of the end

At the beginning of the 45th ballot Senator Bankhead of Alabama made a statement that Underwood had instructed him to withdraw the Alabama congressman's name and pledged the support of the Underwood delegates and himself to the convention nominee. The convention was a turmoil after that announcement. Mr. Bankhead was asked if Underwood would accept the vice presidential nomination and he replied: "No, absolutely."

Clark Withdraws. Underwood's action was but a forecast of what was to follow. Senator Stone of Missouri, speaking for Clark, announced that the Speaker released his delegates, but he added that Missouri would vote for him until the end. Mayor Fitzgerald of the Massachusetts delegation, followed by withdrawing the name of Foss.

Want Harmony. But before the roll was finished, Fitzgerald of New York arose and, speaking for the New York delegation, asked that all personalities indulged in during the convention be forgotten on all sides, and moved

INTERSTATE PHONE CO. BOUGHT BY SYNDICATE

PHONE COMPANY OPERATING IN STERLING AND MANY PARTS OF THIS SECTION IS CONTROLLED BY EASTERN MEN.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Interstate Telephone company, held yesterday in Aurora, an eastern syndicate made it evident that they had quietly gathered in enough stock to control the company, and elected their officers and directors.

This action affects the majority of telephone companies in this section of the state, in fact nearly all but the Home Telephone company at Dixon, which was not identified with the Interstate further than having phone connection over their lines. The change in the Interstate company in no way affects the local company.

HEARST ATTEMPTS TO STAY THE TIDE

CHICAGO AMERICAN WIRES DIXON DEMOCRATS TO UPHOLD CHAMP CLARK.

A large number of prominent men in Dixon this morning received telegrams from Hearst's Chicago American, asking them to telegraph immediately to the Illinois delegation at the democratic national convention at Baltimore to stand for Clark and urging them to continue in that position. As far as known but few telegrams were sent by Dixonites in response to the message.

COUNCIL WILL PASS CUT RATE WATER CO. ORDINANCE

COMMISSIONERS DUG UP OLD QUESTION LAST EVENING AND TOOK DEFINITE ACTION.

RATES TO BE ON METER BASIS

MAYOR BRINTON CALLED FOR COMMITTEE REPORT ON THE WATERWORKS AND COUNCIL ORDERED ATTORNEY KELLER TO DRAW UP ORDINANCE.

Will Be One-Year Franchise Abolishing Flat Rates and Cutting Hydrant Rental, Also Private Consumers' Rates—Purchase Clause—Council Resolves to Accept Market Square for City.

WHAT THE COUNCIL DID.

Discussed the waterworks question and instructed City Attorney Keller to draw up plan for a 1-year franchise for the company, containing provisions for hydrant rental of $30 per year, a marked reduction in the rates to private consumers, a clause compelling the company to install meters everywhere and abolish the flat rates, and also containing a provision that the city can buy the works at any time on giving six months' notice of such intention.

Allowed bills amounting to $3,667.89.

Referred petition of Joe Schnellbach for permission to erect electric sign in front of his saloon to Commissioner Gannon, with power to act.

Passed resolution that the sense of the council is that deed for Market square shall be accepted when it is prepared and turned over to the city by the heirs of John Dixon, and that the park shall be known as City park.

Mayor W. B. Brinton, who returned yesterday from Baltimore, had not yet gotten the effects of the stirring times at the democratic convention entirely out of his system, was indicated at the last evening's council meeting when, just as the commissioners were ready to adjourn, after a most peaceful meeting, he stirred things up by following the suggestion of the Dement-town Doings, that some search be instituted for the "lost, strayed or stolen waterworks matter."

Asks Committee Report.

After the council had transacted its routine business, Mr. Brinton innocently said: "Four months ago, after I had done all I could in the waterworks matter, and you gentlemen were hounding me every meeting to make some report, I turned the question over to Commissioners Schmidt and Schuler. I'd like to know what they've done in the matter."

Whereupon Mr. Schuler indicated that sometime or other he had nearly gotten into a fist fight with some members of the water company, and that the near-fight was right on the street. He also explained that the Illinois Northern Utilities company's questions had come up, to divert the attention of everyone from the water works matter.

"Where's Your Authority?"

Commissioner Gannon injected himself into the proceedings at this time by questioning the mayor as to where he got his authority to turn the question over to anyone, inasmuch as it was in his own department, and the delegate-at-large replied by saying that he wanted to give some of the impatient ones a chance to see what they could do, as they didn't seem to be satisfied with the progress he had been making.

Would Pass Ordinance.

Mr. Schuler at this stage of the game showed that he didn't favor an easy going policy in the future. Orated he: "We can bring them to time by passing that cut-rate ordinance we had prepared some time ago. We've got to do it some time, and the quicker we pass it, the sooner they can take it up and fight it. Then we'll have a chance to see into some of the books they now refuse to let us see."

Shouldn't Play Pool.

Mayor Brinton called attention to the data he had received from the

BALLOON BLOWS UP; FIVE DROP TO DEATH

MELVIN VANIMAN AND CREW ARE PLUNGED 1000 FEET TO EARTH.

FIVE BODIES HURTLE TO DESTRUCTION

Men Were on Aerial Trip Preparatory to Crossing the Ocean—Thousands See Catastrophe—Wife of Famous Aeronaut Is Witness From Window of Home—Body of One Found in Ocean.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 2.—Special to Telegraph—Shot 1000 feet through the air with their dirigible balloon when it blew up in mid-air, Melvin Vaniman, the world famous aeronaut and the crew of four men, which included Calvin Vaniman, a brother of the noted balloonist, were crushed to death.

The accident, which occurred at 7 o'clock this morning, was witnessed by thousands of horror-stricken persons who rushed to the spot.

The balloon caught fire from some unknown cause, and the loud explosion followed immediately and Mrs. Vaniman, wife of the leader of the expedition, viewed the ascension and disaster from the window of her home. The dirigible resembled a blazing meteorite as it plunged to the earth from far above, and the bodies of the men were hurled through the air and dropped into the ocean. Thousands of persons are engaged in searching for the bodies of the victims and were rewarded this morning in finding the corpse of Melvin Vaniman.

The balloon was on a trial trip preparatory to an attempt to fly across the ocean.

CLEANUP CASES WILL TAKE SEVERAL DAYS

THOSE ACCUSED BY CITY OF RUNNING DISORDERLY HOUSES MUST BE TRIED SEPARATELY IN CITY HALL—JACOB MAYER FIRST.

The hearing of the case of the City of Dixon vs. Jacob Mayer, one of those arrested in last Friday night's raid, was taken up in Justice Hanneken's court this morning. Mayer who with his wife, was arrested on the charge of conducting a house of ill-fame, engaged H. A. Brooks to defend him and his counsel this morning demanded the right of trial by a jury of 12 men, as provided in the criminal code.

Accordingly Justice Hanneken adjourned court to the council rooms of the city hall to have room for the jury and witnesses. It was after 10 o'clock before a panel of veniremen was secured and at noon but four of the jury had been accepted, States Attorney Harry Edwards and City Attorney Mark Keller conducting the prosecution.

As the cases against each of the five defendants will be tried separately it is certain that the trials will not be cleaned up until late in the week.

BITTEN BY SPOTTED ADDER NEAR HARMON

FORD RADCLIFFE VICTIM OF A SERPENT'S STING—IN STERLING HOSPITAL.

Sterling, July 2.—Special to Telegraph—Ford Radcliffe, while working on a dredge near Harmon, got too close to a huge spotted adder, which struck at him and buried its fangs in his right hand.

The victim was brought to Sterling immediately and put under the care of a surgeon, who states that in his opinion the patient will recover from the bite of the reptile, though he is suffering from the effects of the poison injected into his system.

Comrades working with Radcliffe killed the snake and brought it to Sterling to put on exhibition.

Convention Adjourns for Night Session—Hot Shots for Nebraskan Fired by John B. Stanchfield, Former Partner of David B. Hill—Calls Him "A Morplat" and Is "For No One But Himself"—Man Who Ran With Commoner Says No Candidate With His "Stigma" Can Win.

Baltimore, Md., July 2.—William J. Bryan became the center of a riotous scene in the democratic national convention yesterday noon. It was precipitated by the Missouri delegation when the thirty-third ballot showed that Gov. Woodrow Wilson was retaining the lead in the presidential race which he had taken on the thirtieth ballot.

With the announcement of the result of the thirty-third ballot, the Missouri delegates suddenly unfolded a flaming oilcloth banner which bore in bright letters the following inscription:

I have known Champ Clark eighteen years. He is absolutely incorruptible. His life is above reproach. Never in all these years have I known him but to be on one side of the question, and that was the side that represented the people.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

Carry the Fight to Bryan. After holding the banner where it was a minute or two, David R. Francis yelled: "Take it to Nebraska."

The banner was taken over to where Bryan was sitting in his seat. Missourians yelled at him: "Here's what you said. Now what are you going to do about it?"

Bryan grew livid with rage, jumped up and rushed to the stage, where he demanded of the acting chairman, John E. Lamb of Indiana, whether he was to be subjected to insult, and insisted that he be given the right to answer.

Mr. Lamb refused to let Bryan talk, and the Nebraskan demanded that the Chairman James be sent for. Pollee got on either side of Bryan as he stepped before the Missouri delegation, and, as he called for Francis, or the chairman of the Missouri delegation, a dozen flats were shaken in his face, and members of the Missouri delegation leaned over and tauntingly yelled: "Clark! Clark!"

A free-for-all fight started over the banner directly in front of the press stand. A dozen Missourians, protected by the sergeant-at-arms corps, raised the banner on the press section. They were thrown bodily to the floor. A dozen of the men were fighting on the floor, while the Baltimore police made childishly feeble efforts to stop the near-riot.

Bryan Demands a Hearing.

Mr. Bryan demanded the right to speak, but the Missouri delegates shouted, "No, sir; he can't talk."

Chairman James finally ruled that Bryan had arisen to a question of personal privilege and that he could state his question.

"Mr. Chairman," he said, "I was seated with my delegation when a banner was brought and placed in front of us. I asked that it be removed from that place. Being refused, I went to the Missouri delegation to find out if the banner was taken to the Nebraska delegation by their order. If that was the unauthorized act of those who have brought it I have nothing further to say. If it was the official act of the Missouri delegation, then I demand the right to answer the question of the banner."

The chair regrets to have to rule that the gentleman from Nebraska has not stated a question of personal privilege, and he cannot talk on the subject.

Bryan bowed to the chairman's ruling, smiled grimly, and returned to his seat in the Nebraska delegation. When he got there he said: "If the Missouri delegation is not responsible for this banner then I cannot say anything."

When there was quiet in the convention the thirty-fourth ballot was ordered, and the only change in it of

MISS HARRIET QUIMBY.

DETECTIVE IN RAID CASES WAS ATTACKED

HARRY L. LEACH, WHO CAUSED ARREST OF ALLEGED KEEPERS, WAS WAYLAIED.

Harry L. Leach, the Burns detective who was mainly responsible for the arrest of the alleged keepers of houses of ill-fame last Friday night, was the victim of an attempted assault last Saturday night while returning to his hotel. While passing the alley between the Plymouth and Rosenthal clothing stores, he was suddenly seized about the throat by someone who had hidden there. The sleuth, however, was able to break the hold of his assailant, and he immediately went to the Belle Clare cafe, from which place he summoned the police. A search was made by the officers, but no trace of the thugs was obtained. Proof that threats had been made against the detective is in the hands of the officers, however, and it is probable that the man who made the threat will be arrested.

MISS QUIMBY DIES IN AIRSHIP FALL

First American Aviatrice and W. A. P. Willard Plunge to Death.

FLYERS DROP 1,000 FEET

Miss Blanche Stuart Scott, Sailing High Overhead, Sees Tragedy and Nearly Collapses, But Lands Safely, Then Faints.

Boston, July 2.—Miss Harriet Quimby of New York, the first woman to win an aviator's license in America and the first woman to cross the English channel in an aeroplane, was instantly killed with her passenger, W. A. P. Willard, manager of the Boston aviation meet at Atlantic, when her Bleriot monoplane fell into Dorchester bay from a height of a thousand feet.

The accident happened when Miss Quimby and Willard were returning from a trip over Boston harbor to Boston light, a distance of 20 miles in all. The flight was made in 20 minutes. The Bleriot, one of the latest models of military monoplane, circled the aviation field and soared over the Savin Hill Yacht club, just outside the aviation grounds.

Heading back into the eight mile gusty wind, Miss Quimby started to volplane. The angle was too sharp and one of the gusts caught the tail of the monoplane, throwing the machine up perpendicularly.

Thrown Clear From Machine. For an instant it poised there. Then, sharply outlined against the setting sun, Willard was thrown clear of the chassis, followed almost immediately by Miss Quimby. Hurling over and over, the two figures shot downward, striking the water 20 feet from shore.

They splashed out of sight a second before the monoplane plunged down fifteen feet away.

It was low tide and the water was only five feet deep. Men from the yacht club in motor boats were on the spot quickly and, leaping overboard, dragged the bodies out of the mud into which they had sunk deeply. Death probably was instantaneous.

Both bodies were badly crushed. Several of Miss Quimby's bones were broken and there were many bruises. Willard, who weighed 190 pounds, hit the water face first and over one eye there was a gash from which the blood was flowing. He, too, sustained several fractures and bruises. The clothing of both flyers was torn and the bodies were so covered with mud that it was several minutes before the doctors and nurses could determine the full extent of the injuries.

Crowds Surge Toward Bodies.

When the victims were brought ashore in motor boats the bodies were laid on the ground on the edge of the aviation field. The crowd which had been witnessing the flights rushed over, but a troop of state cavalry held them back while Dr. George Sheahan, the field surgeon, with his staff and a nurse, made hasty examinations.

In a few moments ambulances arrived and the victims were taken to the Quincy hospital.

Flying high overhead at the time of the fall was Miss Blanche Stuart Scott, another aviatrice taking part in the meet, which had entered upon its second day.

From her high altitude Miss Scott had watched Miss Quimby's splendid flight and was near by when the gust upset the monoplane. In the excitement of the moment no one noticed the lone aviatrice, but when Miss Quimby's body was brought ashore all eyes were directed aloft and Miss Scott was seen making sweeping circles over the field at a height of about 500 feet.

Twice she started to descend, but each time she was seen to falter. In another moment, summoning all her nerve, she turned the nose of her machine downward and landed safely, collapsing in her seat before anyone could reach her.

Before going up on their last flight Mrs. Quimby and Mr. Willard were talking and laughing with their friends, Willard making jokes about his weight and Miss Quimby talking confidently about her plans to make an altitude record in the future that would stand as a woman's high mark.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

How Mrs. Reed of Peoria, Ill., Escaped The Surgeon's Knife.

Peoria, Ill.—"I wish to let every one know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. Forty years I suffered. The doctor said I had a tumor and the only remedy was the surgeon's knife. My mother bought me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am a well and healthy woman. For months I suffered from inflammation, and your Sanative Wash relieved me. I am glad to tell anyone what your medicines have done for me. You can use my testimonial in any way you wish, and I will be glad to answer letters."—Mrs. CHRISTINA REED, 105 Mound St., Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Lynch Also Avoided Operation.

Jessup, Pa.—"After the birth of my fourth child, I had severe organic inflammation. I would have such terrible pains that it did not seem as though I could stand it. This kept up for three long months, until two doctors decided that an operation was needed.

"Then one of my friends recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after taking it for two months (was a well woman)."—Mrs. JOSEPH A. LYNCH, Jessup, Pa.

Women who suffer from female ills should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one of the most successful remedies the world has ever known, before submitting to a surgical operation.

Buying Laces

"I beg your pardon," said the young woman in the quiet street suit as she accidentally knocked the elbow of another customer at the lace counter.

The other young woman looked up irritably. Then after staring a moment she reached out her hand with a great jingle of bracelets and chate-laines.

"Why, Lucy!" she cried, "I haven't laid eyes on you since we were graduated from school three years ago!"

"Why, it's Corinne, isn't it?" said the quiet girl with no great enthusiasm. "It has been a long time—how are you?"

"To tell the truth," said the young woman with the chate-laines, "I'm shopping for my trousseau—I'm to be married soon!"

"Why, how odd!" said the other, with a little smile. "That's what I am doing, too!"

"You don't mean it!" cried the girl with the chate-laines. "You never seemed to attract the boys—I mean, you never had such a trial of them as some of us did. We always said you would surely be an old maid. Well, I'm glad you got a chance at last! I'd have been married a dozen times since those days if I'd said 'Yes,' but, believe me, I wasn't going to be in a hurry!"

"I just took my time, because I knew that there would always be plenty of chances for me. I'm marrying very well—a young man who has a responsible position with a big firm, Harker, Larker & Harker."

"Oh," cried the girl in the quiet suit. "Yes, I know of the firm. Will you tell me what position—"

"Charlie has something to do in the downtown offices," interrupted Corinne. "You wouldn't understand. The firm thinks a great deal of Charlie. It's a fine chance for him and no doubt he'll be at the head of the whole establishment before long. Of course, he isn't rich."

"Are you buying these laces?" inquired the quiet girl. "Aren't they pretty?"

"Yes. I've just got some of this $5 a yard stuff," said the girl with the chate-laines negligently. "Marrying as I am, I have to dress accordingly, and Charlie and I doubtless will mingle with the best society. You aren't finding anything here that you care to buy, are you?"

"You always were such a quiet mouse of a thing, with no style—that is, I mean, you did not care what you wore. There are some good laces around on the other side—only 25 cents, too, and they'd trim very well in a quiet trousseau, such as you are getting up, no doubt."

"I'm nearly worn to a shred getting things in order, for, of course, I had to have dozens of everything. My dear! How I envy you, being able to get a half dozen of everything and let it end there, and just a dress or so! People who live quietly, of course, don't expect to be asked out and don't need evening gowns. It's a great responsibility, living up to Charlie's position and expectations. When the head of the firm asks us to dine sometimes I'm not going to look as though I had to buy a dress for the occasion!"

"Does—is your fiancé very well acquainted with the head of the firm?" inquired the quiet girl.

"Why," said the other, a trifle annoyed, "of course he is! That is, it won't be long before Mr. Harker realizes that he can't do without Charlie in the private offices! Charlie is modest and does not put himself forward and no doubt the other men think he is just one of themselves, but he is waiting his opportunity. Why, the firm doesn't realize how much is on Charlie's shoulders! You don't look at all tired, for one getting up a trousseau. Still, I suppose a small, plain outfit doesn't bother one much, does it, dear?"

"Oh, I have been doing it in a leisurely way for some time now," said the girl in the quiet suit.

"To think of you really getting married!" exclaimed the girl with the chate-laines. "I always thought you'd take up settlement work or go as a missionary or something? How exciting it must seem to you, when, of course, you never had expected it! Some girls just seem cut out for old maids—I guess Charlie wishes I was a little more that way from the time he had winning over so many rivals. Are you going around to look at the cheaper laces, dear?"

"Why, no," said the girl in the quiet suit. "I think not. I'm just waiting for a parcel here."

"My goodness!" cried her friend. "How foolish of you to be so extravagant when it isn't necessary! Now with me it is different—"

"Here's your parcel, miss," a saleswoman interrupted the voluble one, handing her a tiny bundle. "An eighth of a yard, wasn't it? Sixty-three cents from a dollar!"

"Isn't mine here yet?" asked the quiet girl.

"Let's see," mused the clerk. "Yours was the ten yards at $3 a yard, wasn't it? No'm, not yet."

"By the way," snapped the girl with the chate-laines, as she stuffed her scrap of lace into her bag, "who are you marrying, dear? A bookkeeper, I suppose, or—"

"Why," said the girl in the quiet suit, "I'm to marry Henry Harker. He's the junior partner in Harker, Larker & Harker, you know!"

Cold Storage

"Why haven't you been out to see us?" inquired Anne of Evelyn, whom she had met downtown by accident.

"If you knew how busy I am you would not ask," replied Evelyn. "With all my office work, I hardly have time to keep neat. I came out today to buy a new gown which I should have bought a month ago. Come with me and we'll take a look at the shop windows."

"Really, I dare not. Windows are fatal to me. If I look I am lost. I don't need a thing and one hates to waste money. I so seldom go anywhere that my gowns last forever. Evelyn, you cannot realize how curiously dull it is to have no occupation."

"If you understood the discomforts of working for a living you would appreciate your blessings better. Lonesome, are you? Why not make friends in the apartment house where you live?"

"Of course, that bit of advice is well meant, Evelyn, but in the circumstances it happens to be absurd."

"I fail to see why. If you were not so diffident—"

"My dear girl, I'm not in the least diffident; I am merely afraid of being frozen to death if I should try to make friends with my neighbors."

"I don't understand what you mean," said Evelyn.

"If that building were a cold storage warehouse," declared Anne, "the social atmosphere could not be more frigid. Mother and I have lived there a year and a half and not a soul out of all these apartments has made our acquaintance."

"Have you called on your neighbors?"

"Of course not. I would not be so forward as to make advances."

"Then it seems to me you are as bad as the others."

"Indeed, I am not—at least, I do not annoy others. Why, the man in the apartment above ours plays his piano at all hours of the night. He does not even make music, but thumps out some monotonous tune which is as dreary as the moaning of a lost soul. Then there is a woman across the hall with a baby that howls morning, noon and night. Mother went in one day and told her that all the child needed was a little peppermint. The woman replied that the baby was not ill, but was just lonesome whenever she was out of its sight."

"Didn't she come to call after that?" asked Evelyn.

"Is that a joke?" inquired Anne. "You cannot laugh me into liking them. There is a horrid old creature in the apartment below ours who knocks on the ceiling with a broom handle every time I run our sewing machine. We are disgusted with the building and mean to move as soon as our lease expires."

"You do not need to wait, because I'll take the lease off your hands as soon as you like. I am going to go to housekeeping with another girl before long and your apartment would suit us exactly. When you get ready to move let me know."

A few weeks later Evelyn received a note from Anne saying that she and her mother were about to take another apartment, so Evelyn called to see about transferring the lease. During the interval she learned Anne's mother had suffered a fall and was confined to her couch with a dislocated hip. During Evelyn's call so many persons dropped in that she had to remain an hour before she could have Anne to herself.

"I thought you said you knew no one in this building," exclaimed Evelyn, at last. "I never saw more warm-hearted people. Yet you called this place a cold storage warehouse."

"That was before mother was hurt," explained Anne. "The moment the people heard of our trouble they rushed in to sympathize and tell us their troubles in turn. That woman with the baby has lost the poor little darling and every day she comes in and talks to us about it and tells of the flowers she lays on its grave."

"What of the lost soul above you who thumped the piano?" inquired Evelyn.

"Please forget the cruel remarks I made about him," cried Anne. "He had a dear mother who died, and he played the piano because it reminded him of her. He is not a musician, yet he could not bear to have the instrument stand silent and neglected. When he heard that mother was hurt he came to inquire if the noise of the piano annoyed her and he has been so kind. I don't know how we could have managed without him."

"Considering the beautiful way these people have behaved, I don't see why you want to move," said Evelyn.

"Oh, we have no intention of leaving the building; we shall take a larger apartment, which will leave this for you."

"Why?" demanded Evelyn.

"It is a bit too soon to tell," said Anne, blushing, "yet, since you are determined to know, I am to be married. The young man who thumped the piano proved such a dear that mother and I feel we shall be fortunate to have him in the family."

"So the cold storage house was keeping your romance on ice all the while," laughed Evelyn.—Chicago Daily News.

Health & Beauty Hints

By Katherine Morton

A well supplied vanity box, which is still light enough to be carried about in the suit case or hand bag, is about the most precious thing the woman traveler can take along with her.

Many young ladies who have learned the economical tricks of beauty buy theatrical make-up boxes for the holding of the cosmetics and soft little rags that they will need, the girls getting these empty and fitting them up as they see fit. One will buy charming little celluloid boxes—the sort called "Parisian Ivory," for powder, rouge, nail paste, forehead plasters, and so on, putting the liquids she will require into bottles as dainty.

Another will make use of any small cardboard boxes in convenient sizes she has on hand, employing ordinary vials, old or new, for the liquids. For the make-up rags, which are indispensable, tops of old white stockings are used, fine old handkerchiefs, bits of silk undersuits, etc., and the maid who understands traveling will never fail to fasten all the tops of the boxes on with a rubber band.

Now traveling by land and sea have differing consequences, but both methods of transportation threaten enough hurt for the complexion to make a complexion cream and a skin wash most valuable things to have in the vanity box. Then as many young women are unaware of the fact that the soap supplied travelers is never of the best sort, and that sometimes there is none at all, I would advise including a cake of some familiar sort. Grease paint is better, too, for traveling use than the dry sort, this hurting the skin less and keeping on better, and for powder I would suggest a little scented talcum, which could be sewed up for convenience into a little cheesecloth bag. Or if one is used to powder leaves, and knows that the face must first be cleansed with one and then powdered with fresh ones, a book of these would be still more convenient.

Dust is inevitable with travel by train, and as it is not always possible to obtain the means of a face bath, and if left on long the dust will seriously hurt the skin, the face should be cleansed at least twice a day with cold cream and a little of the wash carried along. For the last benzoin will be found excellent, a teaspoonful of this in half a cup of water supplying quite a good face bath. Pour the diluted benzoin on a soft bit of rag and go over all the face with wiping movements, doing this after the skin has been first cleansed with cold cream. After the face has dried, powder as usual.

In place of the benzoin it is possible to employ orange-flower water or alcohol—or any good cologne or toilet water—for taking off the grease after the cream cleansing, or even for the soft itself, but it is never wise to use too much of any of these things, as they all scorch the skin after a while. Upon arrival anywhere the face should be washed immediately with warm water and a bland soap, and since one cannot count always on soft water a small box of borax would be another precious adjunct for the vanity box. Dust, by the way, is curiously destructive to the delicacy of the skin, inflaming it and sometimes settling so deeply into the pores that blackheads ensue. The hygienic soaps of French manufacture are all good, these being healing as well as cleansing to the skin. Old castile is another good soap more easily procurable, as it can be found in every drug store and in many little country groceries.

The injuries of the sea trip come through the influences of salt air and wind, many complexions taking on sudden eruptions or tanning badly. Sometimes the pimples come from neglect of the pores, as salt air is constipating to some constitutions; so a little box of some mild laxative could be included in the supply of beautifiers. Take one of these every night as long as is necessary, and help the good work along by taking a warm sea bath every day. If your eyes are used to glasses keep them on, for you will be more susceptible to seasickness if you leave them off.

For protecting the skin from wind burn, prepare it before putting on the powder with cold cream, rubbing this well down into the pores and wiping off the surplus. Wear a red-brown veil on the ship's deck, or when taking the little boat sail, as this color is about the only one that will resist the tanning agents of Dame Nature; but if you can go without the veil without serious injury to your skin, do so, as air, just air itself, is one of the body's most important beautifiers.

MEAT SUBSTITUTES.

For those who are living without meat it is necessary to study foods in order to supply the needed protein from other sources.

The following dishes may prove suggestive:

Peanut Loaf.—Soak a quart of fine bread crumbs in milk; mix with it a cup of shelled or salted peanuts finely ground; add an egg well beaten and salt and pepper to taste. It should be about the consistency of a meat loaf and should bake as long—about three-quarters of an hour—in a moderate oven. Serve with tomato sauce. Cook a pint of tomatoes with half an onion, four cloves, a piece of bay leaf, parsley and a blade of mace. When well cooked strain. Put two tablespoonsful of butter in a sauce pan and add a slice of onion; brown and add two tablespoonsful of flour. When smooth add the tomato, season with salt and pepper.

Pea Timbales.—Cook a can of new peas, until tender, then mash them through a colander and beat the pulp to a paste. To this add two well-beaten eggs, two tablespoonsful of melted butter and onion juice, pepper and salt to season acceptably. When well mixed place in buttered molds and bake until done.

Peas on Toast.—Heat the peas, if canned, until well cooked, season and add a little white sauce made of butter two tablespoonsful, and flour the same, cooked together, and a cup of cream added. Pour this over well-buttered toast and a simple dish will be ready which takes but a few minutes to prepare.

Asparagus prepared in the same manner and a few hard-cooked eggs chopped and added is a most nourishing dish.

The various nut dishes and nut breads supply a fair amount of valuable food in place of meat when used simply or in combination with other foods.

Delegates Live Up After Midnight

by Voting for Ollie James, While Another Brings the House Down
by Casting His for J. Hamilton
Lewis, While the Latter is Acting Chairman.

Baltimore, Md., July 2.—The Democratic national convention was still in deadlock when called to order today.
After forty-two fruitless ballots, the convention adjourned at 12:40 o'clock this morning just as far from the nomination of a candidate for president as it was when the first ballot was called in the early morning hours of last Thursday.

The convention went into session again today at noon. Before it met there were numerous caucuses of state delegations and more conferences of leaders, but as the convention started on the forty-third ballot there were few indications that these meetings had been of any avail.

Two sessions of the convention were occupied yesterday by fruitless balloting. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey climbed steadily throughout the day until he had obtained 501½ votes. Champ Clark showed loss after loss.

Clark Shows Strength.

On the forty-second ballot Clark showed some ability to "come back" and the night ended with the vote like this:

Champ Clark, 430; Woodrow Wilson, 494; Oscar W. Underwood, 104; Eugene Foss, 28; Judson Harmon, 27;
J. Hamilton Lewis, Ollie James and Mayor Gaynor of New York each received one vote and William Jennings Bryan received one-half a vote on the final ballot.

To the political forecasters there is not much of encouragement for a break in the deadlock in these figures.
Wilson is generally believed to have reached the crest of his strength in the convention. Champ Clark may again this afternoon get some votes that were switched to Wilson last night, but his managers are not quite so confident as earlier in the week.

Underwood Holds On.

The Underwood folks are hanging on in hopes that the presidential lightning will strike their candidate.

The two sessions of the convention were hard grueling affairs, characterized by little else than the monotonous call of the roll of state and the never ending announcement of a vote which did not nominate.

Michigan furnished the one big sensation of the evening by switching a large part of its vote to Wilson.
Some of this was returned to Clark on the last ballot.

As the midnight hour was passed the delegates began to live up to desire to "play hooky." One delegate started some fun by voting for Ollie James. Another brought down the house with a vote for J. Hamilton Lewis of Chicago, who was acting as temporary chairman.

James Opens Night Session.
It was 8:20 p. m. when Chairman Ollie James reached the chair. He was applauded. He immediately called the convention to order at 8:21 p. m.
Rev. Clayton M. Rayck, pastor of the Third Reformed church of Baltimore, offered the shortest prayer since the convention began.

The thirty-fifth ballot was then ordered.
There was wild cheering as Michigan cast 21 votes for Wilson and 8 for Clark. This was a gain of 15 votes for Wilson.

Wilson showed a gain of sixteen on the thirty-fifth ballot, but it brought but a few cheers.

The Thirty-Sixth Ballot Called.
The thirty-sixth ballot started with the same monotonous regularity.
Wilson lost one vote from Michigan on the thirty-sixth ballot.

Champ Clark lost on the thirty-seventh ballot.
The thirty-eighth ballot was started immediately after the results of the thirty-seventh had been announced, at 9:36 p. m.

The thirty-ninth ballot was started at 10:17 p. m. The delegates were sitting tight, but the audience was very restless and noisy. Many left the hall.

Attempts of Underwood and Wilson men to cheer when their candidates showed gains in the thirty-eighth ballot were met with hisses.

Wilson passed the five hundred mark on the thirty-ninth ballot, and the convention hall immediately became filled with stories of the "big break."

The Wilson men started a wild demonstration when the official vote was announced. Chairman James rapped vigorously for order but the Wilson men refused to be quelled.

The fortieth ballot was called immediately after the demonstration ended, at 10:51 p. m.

Wilson gained one in Ohio, taking a vote from Harmon. The delegation had passed for polls three times before the Wilson gain was obtained.

Withdraw Motion to Adjourn.

At 11:16 a motion to adjourn until today at 10 a. m. was made. It was withdrawn after a roll call had been demanded.

The forty-first ballot was started at 11:16 p. m.
At 11:47 p. m. J. Hamilton Lewis of Chicago took the chair temporarily.
He worked strenuously to preserve order.

"Put up that flask. I mean the gentleman in the Alabama delegation, ordered Chairman Lewis.

The whole convention laughed; then the confusion ceased, and the forty-second ballot proceeded.

Virginia cut down its one vote for W. J. Bryan to half a vote on the forty-second ballot.

At 12:30 a. m. another attempt to adjourn the convention was made.
Senator William S. Stone of Missouri, Champ Clark's manager, personally led the fight for adjournment. The motion threw the hall into a maelstrom of protesting delegates. The roll finally was called, after seven minutes of excitement.

House Resents Attack on Clark.

Washington, July 2.—In answer to attacks upon Speaker Clark in the Baltimore convention the house adopted a resolution announcing its entire faith in its presiding officer.

The resolution, offered by a Republican representative, Austin of Tennessee, follows:

"The members of this house, regardless of politics, express their full confidence in the honor, integrity and patriotism of the presiding officer of this house the Honorable Champ
Clark."

It was passed unanimously, Republicans and Democrats applauding.

The confusion grew more and more as the vote proceeded. Almost every delegate was on his feet. The motion to adjourn was carried by a vote of 781 to 260 at 12:40 a. m. until 12 noon today.

note was contributed by Maine, that state casting its solid vote of 12 for Wilson, thus keeping up the shifts toward the New Jersey man which began earlier in the day.

Indiana led the break on the twenty-eighth ballot, when it deserted Governor Marshall and cast 29 of its votes for Wilson. On the following ballot there was little change, but on the thirtieth Vermont, which had been voting for various candidates, plumped its eight votes for Wilson.

Iowa Ties of Clark.

Iowa, in the meantime, had been passed on this ballot, and it was evident the delegates from that state had become tired of voting for Clark, whose total slowly was decreasing.
When the state was called again the chairman announced 13 votes for Clark and 14 for Wilson.

This was the third serious defection from Clark ranks since the balloting began. First Nebraska transferred the larger part of its vote to the New Jersey man, and then Kansas switched its 20 the same way. Wilson's managers hail this as the beginning of the end, and expect a nomination soon to be made.

There were further accessions to the Wilson support on the thirty-first ballot, when Arizona increased its vote to three, Pennsylvania by two and Alaska by three, and Wyoming transferred all of its six votes from Clark to the New Jersey governor.

At 5:17 p. m., after the result of the thirty-fourth ballot had been announced, the convention took a recess until eight o'clock.

Hot Shot for Bryan.

New York had its inning in the Democratic national convention at the start. John B. Stanchfield, former law partner of David B. Hill, came to the rescue of the Empire state. He got the platform after Woodrow Wilson had gained five votes from Clark in Massachusetts and Wilson had received two from New York. He declared New York had been impugned and insulted and had a right to be heard. This was brought out when a delegate from Michigan objected to Stanchfield's explaining his vote.

Mr. Stanchfield told how he ran for governor in 1900 on the ticket with Colonel Bryan. He insisted he had a right to a hearing from Bryan's friends, at least. Stanchfield hit Bryan harder than he had ever been hit in a public speech and got a round of applause for his effort. He characterized the Nebraska as a "money grabbing, office seeking, publicity hunting marplot."

Deems Bryan Stigma Fatal.

Stanchfield declared no man could go from this convention bearing the "stigmata of Bryan" and be elected.

MUFFLED KNOCKS.

"I am glad to hear you eating your soup with so much enjoyment, Uncle Richard."

"Yes, that's a very amusing story, old chap, but here's the way my grandfather says they used to tell it when he was a boy."

"I always come to your restaurant for my noon lunch, Kilpison, because there's no danger of ever finding it crowded."

"I beg your pardon, sir, for letting the train of my dress get under your feet. I'll remove it as soon as I can."

"Borus, come and let's have a square meal. I won $5 from Naggus by reading your last story through without stopping."

"Dearly, I wouldn't mind what anybody says; I know you could have married long ago if the right man had come along."

Explaining the Matter.

"I want some hose for my husband."
"What kind, madam?"
"Garden hose."

"I beg pardon. Did I understand you to say that you wanted garden hose for your husband?"

"Yes, young man. That's what I said. I want some cheap, thick socks, size eleven. My husband has already spoiled several pairs of his best silk hose while working on his onion bed."

HIS IDEA.

MUSIC BETWEEN INNINGS.

Four members of the Dixon Stars baseball team, Burke, Hunter, White bread and Huber, have organized a quartet and between trying to figure how to win games, etc., they have been practicing faithfully. Probably when they get in top notch condition they will entertain the spectators with some appropriate selections between innings. For instance, when their opponents are clouting the ball all over the lot they might sing "You've Got to Quit Knocking That Ball Around" or when it's their own team that's doing the hitting, they might render, "Everybody's Doin' It Effectively."

It will be difficult for the young men to stand in front of the grand stand, however, during a ladies free game and attempt to sing, Oh, You Beautiful Doll, or I'd Like to Live on Love With a Girl Like You, for each of the four would be looking at a different girl, thereby destroying the team work. Huber is writing a new song to sing when he goes to Morrison, to be known as Don't Take Me Out, the Umps is Rotten. The members of this organization will be glad for suggestions for songs, which may be sent in care of this paper.

Commissioner Martin Gannon went to Milwaukee today for a short visit.

July 1—Oscar Schade's new pool room was opened Wednesday and all day and evening the room was filled with lovers of the game. Mr. Schade has fitted his room with all new tables and other equipment of the latest style and his patrons were well pleased with the new room. On the opening day and evening Mr. Schade very generously allowed full use of his tables and also presented each visitor with a good cigar. Mr. Schade is assured of a generous patronage at his hall.

MAYOR TELLS OF DEMOCRATIC MEET

HIS QUESTION OF "JUST WHAT IS A PROGRESSIVE?" STUMPED ILLINOIS DELEGATION.

At the request of some of his fellow councilmen Mayor W. B. Brinton, who has just returned from the Baltimore convention, where he attended as a delegate-at-large from this state, gave his first interview on the big fracas after last night's council meeting.

The mayor said that on Monday night of last week, after all the Illinois delegates had reached Baltimore, the first caucus of the Illinois delegation was held during which, according to his statement everyone wanted to make a speech except himself. He heard all kinds of things about progressives and reactionaries and finally, quoth the mayor, when it came his turn to speak he threw the delegation into a miniature fight by asking someone to explain to him what a "progressive" is. "And," exclaimed His Honor, "there wasn't a man there who could tell me."

ELECTRIC LIGHT AS AN INVESTMENT

The finest mansion that adorns the city street or the countryside if without electrical equipment would be considered as incomplete as if the plumbing were omitted.

In other words ELECTRIC LIGHT is a necessary part of a house. Without it there is a decided difference in selling value.

The fact is so well understood, that the house built nowadays, which isn't wired, is a rarity. Sometimes there is no electric service within 20 miles, but the wiring is done nevertheless.

But the value added to a house after it's wired—the money profit—doesn't equal the other profit that follows although the last is not expressible like the first in dollars.

It's in the comfort, convenience, cleanliness and of electric light.

No house owner need be without electric light because THE EXPENSE OF WIRING HIS PLACE IS LOW and we do the work at cost and spread the bill over two years in monthly payments.

An old house can be wired as easily as a new one without inconvenience to the occupants.

So Thoughtful of Him.

Bridgroom (two days after wedding)—I haven't seen anything yet of that $5,000 check from your father.
Bride—Well, you see, dear papa, heard that your father had already given us one, and he knew we shouldn't care to have duplicate presents.

J. E. Bolin, a prominent citizen of Humbolt, says of Dr. R. S. Piper's treatment: "I was bothered with stomach trouble and severe constipation for twenty years. I had to take a physic every day. Since taking his treatment I have had no need for laxatives. My stomach is fine; all pain gone. I am fully satisfied with Dr. R. S. Piper's treatment."

Dr. Piper will be at the Nachusa
Hotel, Dixon, Ill., July 5th. Hours, 9:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.

COUNCIL WILL PASS CUT RATE WATER CO. ORDINANCE

Continued from appraisers who went over the Freeport works some time ago and reminded Commissioners Schuler and Schmidt that he thought they'd read that data, after he turned it over to them, "instead of playing pool at the Elks club every night."

Which assertion made the aforesaid Messrs. Schuler and Schmidt exceedingly wroth and drew forth vehement denials that they played pool at all.

Advices Fairness.

Just when it looked as if the mayor was going to challenge his committee to a game, taking on both, Commissioner Gannon turned the argument by advising fairness to the water company. He called attention to the fact that the council had given the Illinois Northern Utilities company about everything they wanted and that the company was composed of strangers, while the water company is made up largely of Dixon citizens. He also reminded the council that since the brewery fire there had been no trouble with the pressure.

Favors Meters.

Commissioner Schuler brought up another angle of the question when he called attention to rates charged by the company. He asserted that under the flat rate he had been compelled to pay $20 per year for water to get just a meal a day at his residence and that he had put in a meter to see just how much extra the company was making off of him.
When he gets his figures from that meter he's going to have some fun, he promised.

Mr. Gannon told him there would be a great difference in the cost of his water, by telling of his own experience. He said that under the flat rate it used to cost him $19 a year for water, but that since he installed a meter it had never been over $11.

Whereupon the councilmen decided that the water company should be compelled, if they get a new franchise to abolish all flat rates and put meters in every house. Mr. Gannon wondered who would pay for them, and when informed that the company would, he said that it would cost too much and take too long to install them.

Would Bet Hats.

Mr. Brinton laughed at that assertion and answered that he could install one himself in a few minutes, which statement Mr. Gannon must have doubted, for he cried: "I'll bet you a hat you can't."

Before the mayor could take or reject the wager, however, Schuler dared the commissioner to bet him a hat on the same proposition.

Which disposed of the argument.
There were no bets made.

Will Frame Ordinance.

After the subject had been discussed pro and con, mostly con, the council decided to have City Attorney Mark Keller draw the plan for a new franchise for the water company containing the following salient features:

Ten-year limit.
Abolishment of flat rate and meters for every consumer.

MOST everybody reads the furnish as much news to the man in town and as the farm more. Peter Smith's wife

by the paper that Jones is sell-

Pretty House Negligee for the Few Fleeting Hours of Leisure

The latest in negligee gowns shows that designers are making them more exquisite than ever before. They are practically more in the line of a tea-gown, but not with so loose an effect. The little cap worn is of Val lace trimmed with little rosebuds and long lace streamers falling loosely in front.

SMALL TOUCHES THAT COUNT

Little Ideas for Beautifying the House That Will Be Found Useful to Remember.

After the spring cleaning is over comes the time to add those little beautifying touches which always give an air of "spick and spanness" to the home.

Good taste at present leans toward wall paper with little or no pattern. Striped papers, however, are not frowned upon by the artistic. Plain papers produce a much more effective background, for, pretty, furnitured, white or cream tints make an admirable covering for the drawing room walls.

Paintings look well upon it. A carpet of moss green or pale mauve is attractive if Persian rugs are not used. Cover the chairs with cretonne or old-fashioned chintz.

When having sepia-colored photographs framed, a narrow ebony or brown molding will enhance the beauty of the picture.

The narrow line of black upon the wall is charming, if in the living room or the dainty pink or blue bedroom.

Your summer draperies should be sheer and cool looking. A great variety of materials are suitable for this purpose, and range from high to low prices.

In summer the entire house should speak of coolness and comfort. Pack away all unnecessary articles of bric-a-brac to spare the extra work of caring for them during the dusty weather.

If you decide to store the large rugs or carpets and use small ones, the floors should be well varnished and oiled, that they may be easily taken care of during the summer.

PARISIAN EFFECT

Simple coiffure of white tulle twisted into a knot.

Hats of White Lace.

In fashionland the decree has gone forth that we are to wear lace hats, lace caps and prettily draped turbans of the same material.

These bits of daintiness will be absolutely untrammelled or else decorated with pompoms as lights as thistle-down. Dutch caps fashioned of the finest lace, with a band of chiffon framing the face, are lovely for summer wear.

Draped turbans of pure white Valenciennes lace correspond beautifully with the lovely finger-like track.

Social Forms and Entertainment

Very Impolite.

Your valuable advice has helped me before, so I come to you again.

This is a small town with but one play-house which changes programs every other night, or three performances a week. I took a couple of girl friends there one evening and during the show they said they attended the night before and saw the same show. Now these girls knew the rules of the house, and so knew it would be the same performance. Was it proper not to let me know before, or should they have told me at all?—"Stung."

If the girls you were kind enough to take to the show were so discourteous as to say they had seen it before, without your asking if they had, they certainly were lacking in good manners. If they had seen it and did not care to see it again they should have told you so and said they would be glad to go when the bill was changed, or they should have said nothing.

For an Announcement Party.

Will you kindly make a few suggestions for an announcement party. The announcement is to be made to a club of girls and I would be glad if you would make some suggestions for the lunch and some inexpensive favors.—Anxious.

Write an original story of the girl's life and wind up with the engagement, read this aloud as an interesting tale and "they" will all soon begin to catch on. Of course you use fictitious names. For favors have little baskets holding bon-bons tied with ribbons and a wee "wedding" bell tied to the handle. For luncheon have cream of asparagus soup, lamb chops, green peas, new potatoes, cherry salad, mint sherbet and small cakes.

Perplexing Question.

What should a girl tell a boy when he asks her if she loves him (if she really does love him) and he says he loves her but has never done anything to prove it?

How long should a girl of seventeen wear her dresses? How should she fix her hair?—"Country Girl."

I wonder how a seventeen-year-old girl knows if she really loves a boy or he her when they are both not much more than babies? Wait at least three years and then see how you both feel. Dresses should be just below the shoe tops and hair is very pretty in the Madonna braids around the head, either with or without bows.

Idea for a Dinner Party.

Will you give me a few suggestions for a dinner party?

How many courses? What to serve? What sort of a centerpiece? I don't want anything elaborate and for about six persons.—Waiting Bess.

Use the flowers available in a basket for the center of the table. Serve sardine appetizers for the first course, then cream of pea soup, fried or broiled chicken, asparagus on toast, new potatoes with butter and parsley, tomato and mayonnaise for salad, with cheese balls, and a frozen dessert with after-dinner coffee either in the drawing room or at the table.

Correct Use of Cards.

Will you please tell me the correct way of using cards when calling?—Ignorant Bride.

All you have to remember is to leave two of your husband's cards and one of your own when calling upon a couple, one of each for each woman and one of your husband's for each man in the household.

Reply to "J. S."

Your letter was most excellent considering you have only been in this country two years. The best advice I can give you is to see the principal of your home school and see what studies are required. Tell him your hopes and ambitions and I am sure you will find the desired assistance.

Reply to Dolly.

Boys usually like cushions, dress shirt protectors, silver key rings, silver pencils, card cases, etc. Send the gift as soon as you like before commencement and write "Congratulations and good wishes" on your card. Coats with collars are always in good style. Your writing is legible, but a bit cramped.

Reply to Jane.

Look in the dictionary in the proper names to find out the meaning you wish to know. I think girls of seventeen are decidedly too young to marry. Wait two or three years, then think about it.

Reply to M. F. H.

Regarding the stain, the best thing to do is to consult a first-class druggist and see if he knows any chemical that will restore the color.

WEST BROOKLYN NEWS

The common question, "Where Are You Going the Fourth?"

From the way the people are flocking to town Saturday nights is assurance enough that they are appreciating the band concerts.

Joseph B. Bauer was here on business Thursday afternoon.

The charivari boys did make a terrible noise Tuesday night and Wednesday night, reminding the two newly wedded couples of the day. The boys are well pleased with the treatment that both Mr. Haas and Mr. Jeanblanc accorded them.

Mesdames Modest Vincent and Henry J. Lipps were visiting with relatives in West Brooklyn on Wednesday afternoon.

Henry F. and Oliver L. Gehant will appreciate your insurance business. They handle fire, lightning, tornado, live stock and old line life lines and guarantee good service and good companies. Above all see them before you insure.

F. W. Meyer has a change of address this issue of the News that will strike your appetites very nicely this winter. But look at the ad on our other side it will be of no value to you later.

Fred Schroeder was in town transacting business from Viola on Friday.

Many of the farmers of this vicinity who have not already sold their corn are hoping that it will reach the price of 75c per bushel so that they can sell. They say they will be satisfied if they can get that price now. Some of them did not think that way at the time it was worth 76c.

Edward Haefner was in town from Viola on business Wednesday afternoon.

Joseph W. Rhodes was in town from Compton on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Barr of Compton visited with their many friends and acquaintances in West Brooklyn on Thursday evening.

Henry Haefner was transacting business in this village on Friday afternoon.

John R. Oester of Sublette visited with his parents and other relatives in this town on Friday.

F. H. Delhotal was in town from Lee Center township on Thursday evening.

Miss Kathryn Long returned to her home in Harmon on the evening passenger Wednesday after spending a few days this week in West Brooklyn with her many friends and acquaintances.

Fred Burkardt was in town doing business on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Gertrude McClintock of Milwaukee and mother are visiting for the week with Mr. and Mrs. James A. Phelan north of town.

George Schulthies of Amboy was a visitor in this town on Wednesday afternoon.

Jos. B. Mettillie was in town from the Flatts on business on Thursday. The West Brooklyn Cornet band motored to Shabbona Wednesday night and played the first of a series of eight concerts for the people of that town and were applauded for their efforts heartily. The residents of that community enjoy music and a very large crowd gathered at the park in Shabbona to hear the concert.

Four auto loads conveyed the members of the band to that place, which included the wives of Charles Barr, Jos. P. Sondgeroth and Oliver L. Gehant. The ladies accompanied their husbands for the enjoyment derived from the cross country ride and were not alone for Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Daw and son Edwin together with Elmo Litts, also drove their car there and took in the concert. The four automobiles were driven by Charles Barr, Joseph Barr, Clarence White and Oliver L. Gehant. Coming home the boys met with a very unlucky happening, for the trombone and baritone music was lost from one of the cars. By chance it was located on the next day, for a person by the name of Mr. Rogers of Pawpaw, had it. A boy riding on a bicycle west of that city had picked it up and handed it to Mr. Rogers. He called up our people, having recognized the importance of the package, and now the band extends the utmost gratitude towards him. Without this bunch of music the boys would be severely handicapped. The concert which the boys will play next Wednesday on their second trip to Shabbona will be as follows and will be the same as will be played in our town on Saturday night for the benefit of the people of this vicinity. On account of it being the week of the Fourth the boys have arranged a line of numbers bearing out patriotic strains in recognition of the anniversary of Independence day. The program follows:

March—Our Glorious Nation—Miller
Serenade—Enchantment—McQuaid
March—Progressive America—Miller
Bell Solo—A Charge to Victory—McFall

Two Step—Crater—Lincoln
March—National Reform—Miller
Waltz—Mon Amour—Rathoun
Variety—Yankee Hustle—McFall
March—Bill Board—Lohr
Three Step—Lucky Moon—Stevens
Dance—Teddy Bear—Rockwell
Nat'l March—Daughters of America—Lampe

Joan C. Henkel was here from South Brooklyn Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. E. Henry returned to their home in Dixon on Wednesday night after a day's visit in West Brooklyn.

Fred E. Biggart and wife visited friends and relatives in town Friday morning.

M. J. Bieschke was in Chicago Wednesday to purchase goods for the store.

F. W. Meyer unloaded another carload of flour which he stored in his ware rooms Thursday. From the way this bustling merchant unloads car load after car load of flour each year, signifies that he sells lots of it.

Frank Biers transacted business in town Thursday afternoon.

Messrs. Henry F. Gehant, J. W. Thier and John Mahaffey were in Chicago for a day Thursday. They took the 5 o'clock train from Mendota in the morning.

A. F. Jeanguenat was in town from Viola on business Thursday afternoon.

Whom to Thank

The following business men are the ones you can thank for whatever enjoyment you derive from the band concerts, which are given each Saturday night. They have engaged the band and pay for the concerts. This proves their loyalty toward the people and the band and demonstrates the fact that they endeavor to make

WHAT Is Your Disease?

DR. R. S. PIPER

Will Be At Hotel Nachusa, Dixon

FRIDAY, July 5th

Office Hours--8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m.

"He is honest with you"

He returns every twenty-eight days

Why You Should Come

Many have asked Dr. Piper, how is it that he can cure chronic diseases that the general practitioner can do nothing with. The general answer is: Dr. Piper has devoted his life to the study of Chronic Diseases. He devotes all of his time to his given specialty. He does nothing but office work. Instead of having one office with a practice limited to a radius of a few miles, he has a number of offices, and his practice covers hundreds of miles. He advertises for the difficult and baffling cases that have been seeking relief sometimes for years, many of which come to him and find health and happiness, through the aid of his diagnostic methods and deep acting blood remedies. His advice is always welcome to you. YOU PLACE YOURSELF UNDER NO OBLIGATION WHEN YOU CALL. Come at once and consult the doctor—next time may be too late.

Many of you who have been taking medicine and so called treatments for months will be absolutely cured in a few weeks. Very chronic cases will require somewhat longer time, but it will make no difference; you will be treated free, remedied, accepted, until you can say, "I AM CURED."

Catarrh—Are your lungs or bronchial tubes weak? Do you cough and expectorate blue and despondent and have many other symptoms which you know only too well. These are the mental symptoms of a deranged stomach. Other symptoms are: Bloating, Belching of gas, sour or greasy matter from the stomach, Pain, Distress, Weakness, Palpitation of the heart, Constipation or point to a deranged digestion. If you have any of these symptoms, lose no time. Dr. R. S. Piper's deep-acting remedies will cure you. No matter how many doctors have failed. His specialty is the curing of deep, aggravated chronic diseases. His motto is: PAY HIM HIS FEE WHEN CURED.

Rheumatism—Are your muscles and ligaments contracted? Do you have headaches? Is your tongue coated and your breath bad? Is your urine high colored and offensive? Do you have palpitation of your heart? Do not delay one day longer than you have to, but consult the master specialist, who will tell you what can be done for you. If there are no structural changes, loss is probably curable.

Lost Vitality—Have you never recovered from an old illness? Are you despondent, blue and melancholic over your condition? Do you have spells or fits? Are you becoming anxious and fearful of the future? Are you troubled with nervousness and trembling of your limbs? Do you have that tired feeling in the morning? Is your memory failing you? Let Dr. Piper build you up to your former condition as he has done to many suffering likewise.

Men—Are you suffering from early abuses, lost vital power, losses and drains, backache, weak back, shooting pains in the neck, chest, back and limbs, palpitation of the heart, restless nights, bad dreams, loss of ambition and mental activity, nervousness, irritable temper, bad blood diseases which have been neglected or mistreated? No matter how chronic your trouble may be or how many have treated you, consult the master specialist, Dr. R. S. Piper. He cures 99% of all these cases that appeal to him. His medicines are quick acting and curative. Don't let false modesty keep you away. These diseases are just as legitimate a branch of medicine as any disease of the stomach, etc. Be a man amongst men before it is too late.

Are You Suffering From Bloating, Belching of gas or food from your stomach, Pain or distress in your stomach, constipation or loose bowels, Worms or Mites, Red Wetting, Creepy or numb sensations in the limbs, The effects of an old illness, Despondency, Melancholia, Loss of Vital Energy, Loss of ambition, Wasting diseases, Varicose veins, Deep-seated blood diseases, Early abuses that have been neglected, Headaches, Shooting pains in the head, neck, back, and limbs, Distress, Rheumatism, Auto-intoxication, Infections of a private nature, Drains and losses, Nervous prostration, Piles, Sleeplessness, Neuralgia, Poor circulation, Palpitation of the heart, Shortness of breath, Lame back, Spots floating before the eyes, Dyspepsia, Bileusness, Kidney and Bladder trouble, Catarrh of any part of the urinary system, Asthma, or any evidence of breaking down in MAN or WOMAN? If so, consult Dr. R. S. Piper, the master specialist of Chronic Diseases. No matter how hopeless you may feel, or how many doctors have treated you, if there is a cure for you, he will tell you so. If you wish to consult a real Chicago Specialist in your home town, don't waste any time, but come at the above place at the stated time.

Remember the West Brooklyn Cornet band is for all of West Brooklyn and doesn't stop with its individual membership. The boys work hard to learn the music and appreciate the assistance they receive from their fellow townsmen to help defray the expenses.

HERE AT HOME

Dixon Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Dixon citizen.

John Salzman, 103 Artesian Ave., Dixon, Ill., says: "I have no reason to change my good opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I publicly expressed some years ago. I had back ache a great deal and pains across my loins. My kidneys did not act regularly and I felt miserable in every way. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Leake Bros. Co's Drug store and they did god work, relieving me. I keep them in the house and whenever I take them, they help me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

NO GOVERNMENT TIEUP

Congress Adopts Resolution Extending Appropriation.

Opponents of General Wood Meet Defeat in Plan to Legislate Him Out of Office.

Washington, July 2.—Congress agreed to a resolution extending current appropriations through July, thus preventing the tie-up of the machinery of the government which was threatened by midnight.

The resolution now goes to the president. He undoubtedly will sign it. The situation is caused by the failure of congress to pass some of the big appropriation bills.

After many ineffectual efforts to find Speaker Clark, Representative Alexander of Missouri was chosen speaker pro tem. of the house and signed the resolution extending the annual appropriations. The speaker could not be found at his home or at the capitol. He was believed to be in secret conference over his candidacy.

Opponents of Major General Wood met defeat in their plan to legislate him out of office when Chairman Hay of the military affairs committee re-introduced the army appropriations bill without the clause restricting those officers who may serve as chief of staff.

36 STORM DEAD FOUND
Regina (Can.) Cyclone Deaths Will Not Exceed Fifty.

Regina, Sask., July 2.—It was a sorrowful sight which was shown after the havoc wrought by the cyclone which struck this city. Citizens who had escaped death or injury aided the police during the long, weary night in the work of rescuing the injured and bodies of the dead from the ruins.

Solid As a Rock!

Here is the absolutely new anchoring device used only on the old reliable Saginaw side, which makes it as solid as one piece of granite—as immovable as a mountain. It is our Handy Inner Anchoring Hoop, which circles the inside of the silo above the silage and directly opposite the top outside hoop. It supports any stave that might loosen and prevents them falling inward. Once in place, it needs no attention, no adjusting. Cables from anchoring points to ground rods complete support that dynamite could hardly move. No loose staves! No falling in! No blowing down! Write today for details. Indian Days Are Recalled.

Shelbyville, July 2.—One of the perils of pioneer days in Shelby county was recalled when Charles E. Kelley, an abstractor, found the following entry on page 59 of law record No. 1, under date of May 21, 1832: "The court received an express from the governor of this state, stating that the hostile Indians had waged war against the state of Illinois. On motion, the grand jury was called into court and discharged," etc., etc. It is believed the court discharged the jury that the members might return to their homes to defend their families and property.
